Types of Income

Income received from US sources by nonresident aliens is classified as either:

Effectively connected with a trade or business in the US.

or Fixed and Determinable Income

Effectively connected income (wages or self-employment income) is taxed at graduated rates.

Fixed and determinable income (interest income or dividends) is taxed at a flat rate of 30% or less where a lower rate is established by an income tax treaty.

If you work outside of the embassy, you are subject to both income tax and social security tax. You will have to pay income tax to the Federal Government and the local state where you live.

The exemption from taxes provided by the Vienna Conventions does not extend to income earned outside of your official capacity in the embassy.

- Complete IRS Form W-4 to set up Federal withholding and the appropriate State withholding forms. These forms are filed with your employer.
- After the year ends, you will receive Form W-2 showing total wages received in the calendar year. The form should come by January 31st.

Nonresident Aliens completing Form W-4 should
